Land of Leather Holdings plc

Analyst and investor site visit

Land of Leather, the UK's only specialist national leather sofa retailer, is today hosting a trip for analysts and investors.

The trip will involve a visit to three Land of Leather stores in the London area and include presentations by the senior management and one of the Company's key suppliers, Chateau d'Ax. The trip will allow attendees to learn in more detail about Land of Leather's strategy for growth and its working relationship with Chateau d'Ax.

During the visit, no new material information will be disclosed. Any comments on trading will be consistent with the update given at Land of Leather's interim results on Wednesday 23 November 2005 and with the update given at its trading update on Thursday 2 February.
